

WORLD OZONE DAY

16TH SEPTEMBER 2020

THE WORLD CELEBRATED OZONE DAY ON 16TH SEPTEMBER 2020 WITH THEME: - 'OZONE FOR LIFE: 35 YEARS OF OZONE LAYER PROTECTION'.

Arunachal Pradesh Science Centre Under Aegis of Arunachal State Council for Science and Technology also Celebrated Ozone Day in A very unique and Innovative way. With the crisis of corona virus pandemic that has engulfed the world in its distress grip, even though being confined, the staff of science centre, Itanagar pledged to celebrate this day at innovation hub and homes as well.

Dr. Vivek kumar, curator Arunachal Pradesh Science Centre, Itanagar briefing the members of Innovation Hub about Ozone layer and its importance.

Poster making competition held among members of Innovation Hub and staff of science centre at innovation HUB.

Gem peri, education officer, Arunachal Pradesh Science Centre Explaining the children about ozone layer, its benefits and outcome of ozone layer depletion at her home.

Craft making competition among children to have better understanding and idea about the scenario.

Mui Susi, Education Assistant, Arunachal Pradesh Science Centre giving a small brief on protecting ozone layer.

Poster making competition

Chau Nariani Thamoung, Junior Mentor, Innovation Hub, Itanagar

From the isolation room he made effort to vocalise his ideas and views on ozone day celebration and its significance.

Gopi Yangda, Education Assistant, Arunachal Pradesh Science Centre

observing ozone day at his home with family members by having a small talk among the members and taking their ideas and views on how to protect the ozone layers from depletion.

- It is the duty of human being to take precautive measure to protect the ozone layer from depleting.
- Minimise the use of pollution emitting products.
- Have a healthy and green life for healthy earth and clean environment.
- Plant more trees to reverse global warming.